

Roy Giles

PROVO — Roy Giles, 90, died Dec. 20, 1990, in Provo, of causes incident to age.

He was born June 1, 1900, in Charleston, a son of Robert and Liza Ann Winterton Giles. He married LaDucy Wagstaff, July 25, 1928, in Green River, Wyo.

He and his family moved from Charleston to Tabiona in 1906, to help open homesteading in the Uintah Basin. His first schooling was held in a tent in Tabiona. Following his marriage, he and his wife made their first home in Tabiona where he was involved in ranching. They moved to Provo in 1943, where they have resided since. He operated a farm in Linden and also had a farm in Wallburg for about ten years. He had also worked for Tyler's Construction Company.

He was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He enjoyed his family and his work.

He is survived by his wife, Provo; three sons and one daughter, Rex Giles, Alma Giles, both of Provo; Tom Giles, Price; Mrs. Dick (Vida) Kay, Santaquin; 20 grandchildren, 52 great-grandchildren, two great-great-grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Ronald (Lily) Johnson, Provo; Mrs. Clarence (Ila) Casper, Mrs. Bob (Elthora) Casper, both of Tabiona. He was preceded in death by four brothers.

Funeral will be today at 11 a.m. at the Berg Drawing Room Chapel, 185 E. Center, Provo, where friends may call from 9:30 to 11 a.m. prior to services.

Burial will be in the Provo City Cemetery.